NEW TEACHING SERIES BEGINS TODAY!

The time of 'exile' for the nation of Israel is probably the most applicable to life today because, as disciples, this world is not our permanent home. While we long to be with God, we have a purpose here and now in this – our temporary – home. But how do we handle the inevitable clash of two different kingdoms: God's and mankind's? This message series will help equip us to stay faithful, focused, and effective for the sake of the Gospel.

NIGHTLIGHT BABY-SITTING SATURDAY, APRIL 21, 4-7 P.M. CONNECTING PLACE

Join us in blessing Foster/Adopt families by signing up to serve as baby-sitters so Nightlight's foster parents can enjoy a date night!

Serve as a family, a group, or as an individual partner, and have fun eating dinner with the kids, playing games, and watching a movie. Pizza dinner will be provided.

Thank you for blessing parents in our community!

SCHOOL/COMMUNITY PRAYER WALK

SUNDAY, APRIL 22, 12 P.M. AT ROOSEVELT HIGH SCHOOL (Simple lunch is provided)

You are invited to participate in a community-wide prayer walk for our schools. The local church body believes that a gathering of God's people to intentionally cover our students, teachers, administrators, staff, and families in prayer will calm current fears, bring hope, and encourage transformation in our community.

We will gather for lunch and experience a large group prayer time. Then disperse into smaller groups to each of our six schools where we will spend time walking the campus and praying for the Lord's presence and power in our schools and community. Prayer Walk can be an individual, family, or group experience.

ADULT MINISTRIES

MINISTRY PARTNER APPRECIATION

We will enjoy, bowling, snacks, and drinks in their private 'Eagles Nest' area, along with arcade games and laser tag. Make plans to join us for some well-deserved fun!
